Permit:

Yachts of the types First 35 and Elan E4 are authorized and can be booked through sailingmotion-yachtcharter. All equipment taken over during check-in must remain on board (tools, life jackets, dishes, cushions, fenders, gangway, lines, blocks, etc.). It is allowed to bring additional personal equipment on board (e.g., extra life jackets, tools, lines, blocks, etc.). Removing furniture, doors, or equipment items is not permitted.
Additional class rules include: the anchor and chain must stay at the bow. To avoid damage, the anchor should, if possible, be stored in the anchor locker. Lazy-Jack and Lazy-Bag must remain mounted on the mast/boom but can be rolled up. Adjusting the shrouds is possible with notification to the race management and after signing a liability waiver with the charterer. Changing the mainsheet routing is permitted. The use of personal spinnaker sheets, blocks, barber haulers, etc., is allowed. Original equipment must remain on board. The water tank may be emptied. The diesel tank must be full upon handover. Teams are responsible for cleaning the underwater hull; however, this should be clarified beforehand with the charterer or sailingmotion-yachtcharter to avoid damage to the antifouling coating.
All skippers must possess a valid sailing license to demonstrate the necessary knowledge and qualifications for safely operating the sailing yacht and must be members of a national sailing association. All yachts must be adequately insured against liability damages.

Registration at the race office, controll and control measurement of the yachts:
The exact position of the race office will be announced bevor the event. There you will get your starting number (in case, the yachts are without numbers)
Opening Hours: Sunday, 16.05.2027, from 17:00 until 19:00

Racing Course:
Courses will be sailed without length or time limits. Several up-and-down courses and navigation races are planned.

The daily skippers briefing takes place on each racing day from 09:00. Take attation to the „black board“.

Rating
Seven races are scheduled, with one elimination. If fewer than four races are sailed, no elimination will occur. The overall ranking of the yachts will be determined according to the ORC Club Performance Line. The overall ranking corresponds to Appendix A of the WRS. Prizes will be awarded even if only one race is sailed.

Groups:
The First 35 and Elan E4 cruising yacht categories compete for the Adriatic Sailing Week title in a single classification. The yachts will start together and be classified according to the ORC Club Performance Line. The First 35 and Elan E4 one-design classes will also receive their own class classification. The ORC Open class will also receive its own classification.

Advertising:
Advertising on sails, hull, and railing is permitted. Any other PR event or advertising during the event requires the organizer's approval. The following advertising spaces on participating yachts must be kept clear for the organizer's advertising: 20% of the hull in the bow area, flags on the backstay, and parts of the main boom.

Television and press recordings:
Participants agree that recordings of participating yachts and persons on the water and on land may be made, and that these may be broadcast or printed without restriction in image and sound.
